MEMBERSHIP

We are pleased to welcome Gary and Linda Udinsky to our congregation as Associate Members. Their daughter, Sara (Docar) was married by Rabbi Haas and the Udinsky's have enjoyed attending High Holiday and other services with their family. Gary and Linda are still active members of Congregation Agudath Achim, but they also have many long-time friends at Mickve Israel and look forward to attending other services and events at CMI. Gary is a native Savannahian. He and Linda have a lovely blended family including four children and five grandchildren.

MAZEL TOV

Mazel Tov to parents Marlene & Phillip Robinowich, brother Henry and Grandparents Charlene & Jeffrey Robinowich and Leslie & Alan Seidman on the birth of their baby boy, Ezra Chism Robinowich!

Mazel Tov to Maxine Patterson for being honored last month by The Board of Directors of the Martin Luther King Jr. Observance Day Association. During the Association's ceremony held at Savannah State University, Maxine was named one of the 2020 MLK Marshals for the upcoming MLK annual celebration. Rabbi Haas introduced Maxine and many members of the Jewish community were in attendance. Along with recipient Lieutenant John A. White (one of the first Savannah African American police officers), Civil Rights honoree George Shinhoster, and Trailblazer Awardee Antwan Lang, Maxine will lead the MLK Parade scheduled Monday, January 20 themed, "Dr. King's Non-Negotiables: Non-Violence, Equality, Peace and Love."

During the Marshal's Reception, Maxine was recognized for her 50 years serving Savannah's youth – especially in the African-American and Jewish communities – through dance.

Mazel tov to the parents Sarah and Brody Docar. and Grandparents Gary and Linda Udinsky on the birth of their baby boy, William Docar.

It's Time to Vote

We've been talking about the 2020 elections for a while, and the time has then finally arrived for us to vote in the elections for the.....38th World Zionist Congress.

In 1897, Theodore Herzl founded the World Zionist Organization, which to this day allocates money on a yearly basis to Israeli society, and the members of the World Zionist Congress decide how to allocate this money. What's most amazing about this organization is that every Jew in the world is given the opportunity to vote on where this money goes, because we vote for the delegates to this Congress.

How does it work? Well, every Jew in the world can vote for a delegate organization. Once the voting is completed, the Congress is created according to the percentage of votes each organization receives.

In 2015, there were 145 delegates in total from the United States. The Reform Movement received an incredible 56 delegates (39%), which resulted in about 20 million dollars (4 million a year for 5 years) being directed towards the Israeli Reform Movement.

We want to do even better this year. That's right. All that's needed to vote online is to be Jewish and 18 years of age by June 30, 2020. The vote will be from January 21st (MLK Day) to March 11th (Purim), and we can vote at any time during this period.

As liberal Jews, we hope to support liberal Judaism around the world, and this election is one of the best (and far easiest) ways to show our support. We would love everyone to vote for the ARZA slate (International Reform Movement) as our representative.

Tim Slivinsky will be our point person for the election, so if you have any questions, please contact him (or ask me as well). We look forward to having the opportunity to vote alongside Jews from around the world.

HISTORY AND HERITAGE COMMITTEE

Mickve Israel Wins GHRAC Award

In October, 2019 Congregation Mickve Israel received recognition by the Georgia Historical Records Advisory Council (GHRAC) at the 17th annual Awards for Excellence ceremony at the Georgia Archives in Morrow, GA (near Atlanta). In the category of "Excellence in Archival Program Development by a Local Historical Records Repository" this award recognizes the use by the History and Heritage Committee of primary resources and archival materials in programming related to the exhibit, "Representations of Jews in Irish Literature and related programming", co-sponsored in March, 2018 by Mickve Israel, Georgia Southern's Center for Irish Research and Teaching, and Atlanta's Irish Consulate General.

"The Children of Erin and Abraham: Irish-Jewish Connections in Savannah" used primary resources found in archival Savannah newspapers, Ancestry.com, and Mickve

Israel's Archival Collection (housed at the Georgia Historical Society) throughout presentations by Mickve Israel and Dr. Howard Keeley of Georgia Southern's Irish studies program.

In addition to Mickve Israel's award, over 20 projects catering a wide swath of Georgia history topics by individuals and organizations throughout Georgia (including 5 from Coastal Georgia) were recognized. Award presentations were made by Christopher M. Davidson, J.D., State Archivist and Assistant Vice Chancellor of the University System of Georgia, and Sheryl B. Vogt, GHRAC Vice-Chair and Director of the Richard B. Russell Library for Political Research and Studies, University of Georgia.

GHRAC, a branch of the Georgia Archives, supports efforts throughout Georgia to improve the condition of historical records and to promote use of those documents for educational purposes.

5 Things You Should Know About the WZC Elections

Here are five things you should know about the upcoming World Zionist Congress (WZC) elections and why they're critically important to the Reform Movement – in North America, in Israel, and around the world.

1. The World Zionist Congress (WZC) is a representative body of the world's Jewish people.

Established by Theodor Herzl in 1897, the Zionist Congress (as it was originally known) was the legislative body of the Zionist Organization (ZO), a non-governmental entity that promotes Zionism. Today, the two bodies are known respectively as the World Zionist Congress (WZC) and the World Zionist Organization (WZO).

The WZC, also known as the Parliament of the Jewish People, comprises 500 delegates and meets in Jerusalem every five years. It enables delegates to exert ideological influence on both Israeli society and the global Jewish agenda, as well as allocate financial and other resources to various organizations – including the Reform Movement – in Israel.

The 38th World Zionist Congress is scheduled to meet in Jerusalem in 2020; the elections to determine the size of the various delegations that will attend are scheduled to be held from January 21 to March 11, 2020 (MLK Day to Purim).

2. Participating in the WZC elections is the only way North American Jews can weigh in democratically about issues in Israel.

Currently, the United States has 145 delegates in the WZC, the largest single delegation outside Israel. Thanks to a robust turnout in the 2015 elections, 56 of the 145 delegates (39 percent) represent the Reform Movement and, as a result, have been able to ensure that more than $4 million a year ($20 million over five years) is being directed to the Israeli Reform Movement. By comparison, the Israeli government annually provides nearly 4 billion NIS ($1.1 billion) to Orthodox and Haredi institutions in Israel.

A strong election turnout among North America's Reform Jews and our supporters and allies will ensure that financial resources will continue to flow to our Israeli movement – including Reform congregations and institutions. It also will allow us to fill leadership positions in some of Israel's national institutions, including the World Zionist Organization (WZO), the Jewish Agency for Israel, and Keren Kayemeth LeIsrael - Jewish National Fund (KKL-JNF).

A leadership role in KKL-JNF will enable us to ensure that decisions about government and public spending over the Green Line, including land purchases, reflect the Reform Movement's values and positions. Only in this way can we continue to build a democratic society in Israel that truly reflects the Jewish values we hold dear: pluralism, equality, economic justice, and peace.

What's more, because JAFI and the WZO support programs of the World Union for Progressive Judaism (WUPJ), high voter turnout will prove beneficial for WUPJ congregations and for Netzer Olami and Tamar, which offer programming for Progressive Jewish youth and young adults in communities around the world.

3. Any Jew over the age of 18 is eligible to vote.

Voters in the WZC elections must:

- Be 18 years of age or older (by June 30, 2020)
- Self-identify as Jewish
- Agree to the Jerusalem Program, the official platform of the WZO and the Zionist Movement
- Agree to pay a minimal processing fee.

4. You can help mobilize voters in your community.

Mobilizing voters will be essential for the Reform Movement to achieve success in the WZC elections. Congregational captains will play a key role by identifying three to five leaders, including one staff member, within their synagogue community who will, in turn, mobilize congregants to vote. Union for Reform Judaism (URJ) leaders will keep congregational captains informed about the election and how their members should prepare for the voting period.

Tell us how many voters from your community you anticipate will participate in the upcoming WZC election. (We would be glad to consult with your congregation to help determine the number of voters you hope to mobilize within your community.)

5. Voting will be quick and easy.

All voting will be completed online and will be accessible from mobile devices. It is a simple process and will take only a few minutes.

CMI Note: We will provide the link for voting once it goes live.

Sign Up For Judaism 101

12 sessions, 2 hours each session. Attendance at all 12 sessions is strongly suggested and encouraged for any person considering conversion to Judaism. If for some reason, a session is missed, it can be made up individually with either Tim or Rabbi Haas at an agreed upon time.

The individual sessions begin on Tuesday, January 14, 2020, at 6:30pm at Congregation Mickve Israel, enter through the Wayne Street entry doors. Sessions will continue every Tuesday at the same time through Tuesday, April 7, 2020. NOTE: There will be no class on Tuesday, March 17, because of parking issues and access to the synagogue as a result of St. Patrick's Day festivities.

HERE IS THE LIST OF TOPICS FOR EACH SESSION:

1. January 14 – Introduction and Who are the Jewish People?
2. January 21 - Jewish beliefs, sin and forgiveness, and Jewish sacred texts
3. January 28 - Living in Jewish Time – Shabbat and the High Holidays
4. February 4 - Living in Jewish Time- The Festivals and other holidays
5. February 11 - The Jewish Story – Creation to Enlightenment
6. February 18 - The Jewish Story – the Enlightenment to Modernity, Zionism, and Israel

7. February 25 - Anti-Semitism and the Holocaust
8. March 3 - The American Jewish Experience and Diversity
9. March 10 - Living a Jewish Life – Prayer, synagogue, liturgy, and music
NO CLASS on Tuesday March 17.
10. March 24 - Living a Jewish Life – Marriage, partnership, family and children, and more
11. March 31 - Living a Jewish Life – Death and Mourning
12. April 7 - Choosing Judaism – Conversion

There will be a $45.00 fee for the course, which includes the price of the book as well as the cost of other materials for the course. Those taking the course toward conversion will also write reflections on various assigned topics, participate in discussions, and attend various Shabbat services throughout the duration of the course. Each participant interested in conversion will also attend arranged meetings and discussions with Rabbi Haas.

The class also welcomes congregants who wish to attend a “brush-up” course on Judaism. If there is a particular session or two that sounds interesting, please feel welcome to attend those sessions only.

For any questions or to register, please contact Tim at 912-233-1547, ext. 313.

ESSEN ESSEN BY INA KULLER

MAMMA'S STUFFED SHELLS

Ingredients

Makes 16-20 shells

1, 16 oz. box large pasta stuffing shells

FOR STUFFING:

- 2 Tablespoons olive oil
- 1/4 cup celery, diced small
- 1/2 cup onion diced small
- 3 chopped garlic cloves
- 1, 15 oz. container ricotta cheese (low fat okay)
- 8 oz. Mozzarella, whole milk or low fat, diced small
- 2 T. cup fresh grated parmesan cheese
- 1 box bag of frozen chopped spinach, thawed and squeezed of all moisture
- 1 beaten egg
- 1 teaspoon dried oregano
- 1 teaspoon dried basil
- 1 teaspoon kosher salt
- 1/2 teaspoon white pepper
- 1/8 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 2 Tablespoons toasted pine nuts-expensive I know but add a nice crunch and richness
- HINT: frozen spinach in a bag is easier to work with as it doesn't contain the amount of water that the standard block of spinach does.

CHEESE SAUCE-this is a light sauce

- 4 Tablespoons olive oil
- 3 Tablespoons chopped onion
- 4 Tablespoons all purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon kosher salt
- 1/4 teaspoon white pepper

- 2 cups milk (2% fat okay)
- 1 cup chicken stock or broth (salt free, ok)
- 1/4 cup Parmesan or Romano cheese, grated

Directions:

Cook shells according to package directions. Rinse under cold water, drain and set aside.

For Stuffing: Heat olive oil in medium saucepan and sauté onions and celery, add garlic for 30 seconds. Remove from heat to medium bowl. Add the remaining ingredients and combine set aside or cover and hold in refrigerator.

For Cheese Sauce: While pasta shells are cooking according to package directions, make sauce. Heat olive oil in medium saucepan over medium heat. Add onion to wilt, then add flour to make roux and stir while cooking for about 3-4 minutes. Add S&P and milk, chicken broth and grated cheese. Simmer for about 5 minutes stirring so it does not catch on bottom of pot. Remove from heat.

Spray large baking dish with cooking spray and add stuffed shells in one layer, crowding is ok. Top with cheese sauce and bake in 350° oven for about 35-40 minutes until bubbly hot.

Both parts of this recipe may be made a day ahead, refrigerated, and put together at last minute for baking.
